Grist Mill Park Dedication by Margie Russell

The Millstone Stone Restored

The park, named for the grist mill that once stood opposite it on Mill Dam Road, has come to fruition after several years of tireless effort on the part of the Centerport Harbor Civic Association lead by Gloria Werthheimer.

The centerpiece of the park is one half of the millstone from the Grist Mill. This stone was donated to the Town of Huntington, for the sole purpose of being displayed at the Grist Mill Park, by the Greenlawn-Centerport Historical Association.

The stone had been previously exhibited at the Suydam Homestead on 25A in a setting that was the generous work of a local Eagle Scout.

The park in its short lived history has already become a very popular spot locally for rest and contemplation.;

Crafts – A Historical Legacy

There are many ways to tell the story of a town's past. Archived photographs, preserving fine art and restoring local buildings. The GCHA is looking to keep alive certain manners of entertainment. One thing that was interwoven into the lives of our local ancestors was the time and effort put into the making of crafts.

With this in mind we are recruiting members who have the time and talent to create small craft items. If you have any interest in this particular endeavor please contact our office.;

Charles "Bud" Kissam

Charles Kissam

The GCHA mourns the loss of Charles Kissam, who passed away on January 30th, 2002. Mr. Kissam was an active member of our Association for many years.

Born on May 7th, 1911 in Brooklyn, he was a ninth-generation Long Islander and he taught mathematics at Northport High School for over 35 years. Mr. Kissam and his family resided in his grandfather's house on Broadway in Greenlawn. He is survived by his wife, three children, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Our heartfelt condolences go out to Mr. Kissam's family. He will be missed.;
